About the Speakers:

We have all utilized the principles of self determination in our lives to move out of family homes, group homes, and rehabilitation facilities. We have reached our own goals of independence by embracing the principles of self-determination. By gaining control of our services and costs we have realized the benefits of full citizenship. If your goal is to gain control, have the freedom to become independent, and you want to learn how self-determination can work in your life we would be glad to share our stories with you.

You should be able to have the life you want even if you use public dollars.

If your goal is to gain control and exercise the right to freedom call us.

Can we gain control?
Yes we can!
